

Christian Cappelluti Memorial Scholarship Fund

Academic Year 2010-2011

The Christian Cappelluti Memorial Scholarship Fund was established on September 25, 1998 and restated and amended on January 1, 2002 by Franco Cappelluti and Adrianna Notari Cappelluti of Rome, Italy, in memory of their son, Christian Cappelluti. Christian Cappelluti died unexpectedly at 22. He was, in addition to being a Wake Forest student, a singer, songwriter, and guitarist who showed great promise. The purpose of the fund is to provide a scholarship or scholarships for undergraduate students attending Wake Forest who exhibit exceptional talent and achievement in the field of music.

John Jacob Eichhorn

Greensboro, NC

eichjj8@wfu.edu

Junior

Major: Music Performance and English

John is involved with the orchestra, wind ensemble, clarinet choir, clarinet quartet, saxophone quartet, and saxophone ensemble. He is also a member of the Latin Honor Society, Eta Sigma Phi, and Student to Student ministry. He studied abroad in Prague, Czech Republic during the fall 2010 semester.

Joseph Alexander Ivey

Pawleys Island, SC

iveyja8@wfu.edu

Junior

Major: Religion

Joseph is majoring in religion and minoring in chemistry and music. He is involved with Reformed University Fellowship, sings in Chi Rho (the men's Christian a capella group), and serves on the Traditions Council. Joseph recently studied abroad in Santiago, Chile. After he graduates, he hopes to go to medical school.

Wake Forest University inspires me to GIVE - Give myself to others through service, my future career and volunteer opportunities.

— Emily English ('13)

WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY

John Wile Kossler

Winston-Salem, NC

kossjw8@wfu.edu

Junior

Major: Music Performance

John is majoring in music and minoring in Italian and English. He plays classical guitar and is a Presidential Scholar for Distinguished Achievement.

Cheng Liu

Hangzhou, China

liuc29@wfu.edu

Sophomore

Major: Finance and Music Performance

Cheng is involved with intramural soccer and an a cappella group called Innuendo. He is interested in studying Music and Business.

Jorge Junior Mendez Estrada

Kernersville, NC

mendjj8@wfu.edu

Junior

Major: Health & Exercise Science

Jorge Mendez is a health and exercise science major and philosophy minor. A double bassist, he is also heavily involved with the music department, playing in numerous ensembles and acting as an adviser for the Seacrest Artist Series selection committee. From Kernersville, NC, Jorge is the vice president of Service in Alpha Phi Omega, the co-ed service fraternity, the philanthropy chair of the Organization of Latin American Students, and the vice president of Diversity Recruitment in Ambassadors of Admissions. Through these positions he works to instill the love of service in others that he has by organizing volunteer opportunities that the members of the organizations can attend. A pre-med student, he is also a member of the Student Health Advisory Committee, which attempts to bridge the gap between the Student Health center and the general population through dialogue and clinics. After graduation he wishes to pursue a Masters of Nutrition at UNCG and then go on to medical school.

Wake Forest University inspires me to live my life in service to others.

— Jessica Warner ('12)

WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY

Kayla Maria Shipley

Westminster, MD

shipkm8@wfu.edu

Junior

Major: Economics and Music Performance

Kayla is a SPARC leader and the LEAD Volunteer Committee Chair. She is also involved with Circle K International, Hit the Bricks, Wake n Shake, the Wind Ensemble, and the Orchestra. She is the Clarinet Choir Principal Clarinetist, Clarinet Quartet Principal Clarinetist, and a member of the Quintessential Quintet. She was the winner of the Wake Forest Music Department Concerto Competition as well as a member of the Pro Humanitate Honor Roll, Golden Key International Honor Society, and the Omicron Delta Epsilon Economics Honor Society. She is currently studying abroad in Vienna, Austria at the Flow House.

Sara Elizabeth Spires

Mt Pleasant, SC

spirse9@wfu.edu

Sophomore

Major: Accountancy

Sara is a member of the Wind Ensemble, Orchestra, Clarinet Choir, Pep Band for football and basketball, Alpha Phi Omega Co-ed Service Fraternity, and the Volunteer Service Corps. She was valedictorian of her high school and has made the Dean's List every semester at Wake Forest. She is planning on completing the five year Masters of Science in Accountancy program in the Schools of Business.

At Wake Forest, excellence is a priority, and it inspires me to do my best.

— Aisha Forte (JD '12)

